

CERTIFICATE III in INDIVIDUAL SUPPORT (DISABILITY)

CHC33021

If you have a passion for caring for people with a disability, want to work in one of the fastest growing industries in Australia, or simply want to learn how to care for people living with a disability, our Certificate III in Individual Support (Disability) (CHC33021) course will help you achieve your goals.

This qualification reflects the role of individuals in the community or home who work under supervision and delegation as a part of a team, following an individualised plan to provide person-centred support to people who may require support due to disability.

Upon completing the nationally accredited Certificate III in Individual Support (Disability) (CHC33021) you can work in several areas, including as a:

- Care Worker
- Home and community personal care worker
- Disability support worker
- Accommodation Support Worker
- Residential Support Worker

Our course delivery features a combination of on-campus and online learning. This flexibility allows students to continue to study in a safe, guided and supported manner.
